More About This Producer

When wine industry veterans Rebecca Faust and Bruce Lundquist first set out to establish Rack & Riddle Winery, they envisioned a leading-edge facility and premium vineyards to produce wine in Hopland, California. But not long into planning did their goals stretch to include a custom crush facility for sparkling and still wines as well as the Rack & Riddle wine brand.

Bringing together four renowned winemakers on staff, including the sought-after skills of winemakers Penny Gadd-Coster and Raphaël Brisbois, Rack & Riddle specializes in processes that take an incredible amount of labor, time and equipment, but that result in superior wine.

Faust and Lundquist harness a combined expertise of nearly 40 years to create a niche in the marketplace. It's no small feat to create sparkling wine in the traditional méthode champenoise. As such, many wineries don't attempt it. Rack & Riddle unlocks the ability to create outstanding, award-winning sparkling wines for a host of brands.
