WINEMAKER NOTES:

Located on the right bank of the Rhone, Domaine Mejan-Taulier was established in 1920 by Valéry Taulier. His son-in-law, André Méjan, was truly a wine maker at heart and he continued the tradition of wine making with finesse and gentle forces expressed with truth and elegance. The estate is located in the center of the village of Tavel where the energy of the wind and the hardness of the pebbles rolled into the electric current of the Cretaceous ocean, gives the land its enchanting power. Today, Florence Mejan, the granddaughter of the founder, has taken over the house. She is surrounded by a new, small crew of enthusiasts who are constantly working to ensure excellence and beautiful flavors.

TASTING NOTES:

Dark ruby color is very unique. Structured on the palate with a nice liveliness. This Tavel is among the best of the appellation. It appreciates in youth or after a few years.
